BTW, a whole day meeting on Friday interferes with Friday prayers and will be extremely cumbersome to all the imams who lead congregational prayers that day. Several will not attend for that reason alone.

BTW, a whole day meeting on Friday interferes with Friday prayers and will be extremely cumbersome to all the imams who lead congregational prayers that day. Several will not attend for that reason alone.

Thanks [Redacted] and [Redacted] In reading your email below, can I send a representative from [Redacted] I'd love to be there, and still me attend, but I may need to send a designee. Is that permissible?

Is there also an agenda or a bit more information on the session being run so I can brief someone as well?

Many thanks for all you do.

A follow on thought...

He's your community member, and knows your office. Would be more appropriate for someone from WF to approach him initially.

Then if he's good to go, I will need his email address to send him the invite, which also requests his biographical data.

We (CRU) have reserved the HRD conference room for Friday, October 16, 2015, from 1:00p.m. to 5:00p.m. to give the CVE and portal presentation to the national advocacy groups representing the Arab Muslim, and Sikh community. We are in the process of receiving the names, e-mail addresses, and their respective organizations from [redacted] of DOJ. We hope to have them today (morning), then, if necessary, pare down the list. Does this date work for everyone and if so the following needs to be accomplished:

1 - CVE to mail out the invitations to the identified individuals per CRU's list (as not to reinvent things, the e-mail should be relatively consistent with the one CVE previously sent out to the group which came to HQ in July). Please provide a CVE POC to which the list can be forwarded to.

2 - Although the HRD conference room has been booked from 1p.m. to -5p.m., I leave it to your discretion as to the specific start/end time and length of the meeting. b6

Dear Respected Colleagues,

I pray this message reaches you in the best of health and happiness. I wanted to thank you for inviting me to this wonderful event. I must express my regret for my inability to attend, as Friday afternoons are the holiest day of the week for Muslims. As such, I am obligated to perform services on Friday at the mosque and will be unable to excuse myself from my pastoral duties.

I wish you all the best, and I hope that next time I will be available for such a wonderful discussion.

Sincerely,

We look forward to seeing you October 16th
