JUDGE BILL MORVANT

They call him the quiet man

Judge Bill Morvant, sixteen years of conservative decisions and the courage to run a tough drug court

So when conservative business groups researched the record they found the quiet man and endorsed him for supreme court because he knows where the law ends and the right to run your own life begins [PFB] Judge Morvant won't have his personal opinion and make it a new law. Isn't that the way it should be?
